LE MARS, Iowa (AP) – Federal charges have been filed against two Sioux City residents accused of robbing the Iowa State Bank of Le Mars.

U.S. district court records say Phillip White and Karen Merrick are charged with bank robbery. Prosecutors say White robbed Iowa State Bank in Le Mars on Dec. 12 and Merrick drove a U-Haul van as the getaway vehicle. Officers managed to flatten the van's tires and arrest the pair.

The two already have pleaded not guilty to robbery and other charges in the state cases, which have been dropped in favor of the federal prosecution. The next federal hearing for them is scheduled for Feb. 20. According to court documents, White says he robbed the bank in order to pay off a debt of $5,000 or he would have needed to deliver a pound of methamphetamine.

(Le Mars) — The Le Mars Community Board of Education approved Monday evening an application to be submitted to the Iowa Department of Education requesting a waiver for the Le Mars Community High School Physical Education program. High School principal, Dr. Mark Iverson informed the school board the school wishes to change the physical education program from a semester program to a tri-mester program. Iverson says, if approved, students would have Physical Education classes each day, as opposed to every other day.
